? Frequently Asked Questions

- Can I use brown rice instead of white rice?
Yes. Brown rice works, but it takes longer to cook and may require additional stock or water.

-How should I store leftover Jollof Rice?

Store it in an airtight container in the refrigerator for up to three days. Reheat thoroughly before serving.

-Can I make this recipe vegetarian?

Absolutely! Replace the chicken with vegetables or tofu and use vegetable stock instead of chicken stock.

-Why is my Jollof Rice too soft?

This usually happens if too much liquid is added or the rice is overcooked. Measure your liquids carefully and cook over low heat.
